

Ancient Perfume Jar

Starting Bid $150.00

Retail Value $700.00

1 Available

Donated by Bruce Sonnenberg

- From Bruce's personal collection
- Ancient Biblical pottery
- Roman terracotta
- Found in Bethlehem
- New Testament Era
- 3.5" inches
- Presentation stand included

Directly from Bruce's personal antiquities collection, this delightful piece of Roman terracotta was discovered in the historic Bethlehem, the town of Jesus' birth. Transporting us to the intriguing times of the New Testament era, this treasure measures 3.5 inches, perfectly sized to fit in the palm of your hand. Displayed proudly on its included presentation stand, this ancient relic invites you to marvel at its rich history and sparks the imagination with tales of distant lands and biblical wonders.

