ARTIST'S STATEMENT

The inspiration for my creations comes from the Creator of all things.

As images are impressed upon my heart, my imagination comes alive. From there, creative energy flows into and form emerges from my favorite mediums: clay, fiber, and glass. Each piece holds the energy of the divine inspiration I have received.

My heart's desire is for those who view my work to be awakened to their own creative forces. My hope is for this awakening to bring forth a multitude of unique expressions of beauty on both a personal and global scale.

Every piece of my art carries a prayer that I might inspire others to connect with both their Creator and their own inimitable beauty, magic, and creativity.
