

1st Annual Auction

He Intends Victory

Various Ancient Roman Coins (6)

#29

Starting Bid $25.00

Retail Value $100.00

1 Available

Donated by Bruce Sonnenberg

Ancient Roman coins were a vital component of the Roman economy and served as a means of exchange throughout the empire. They featured portraits of emperors, gods, and various symbols of power, reflecting the political and religious ideologies of the time. These coins provide valuable historical and archaeological insights into the economic, social, and artistic aspects of ancient Roman civilization.