Founded in 1979, this once small family winery that only produced for certain local merchants has grown to become a full-fledged entity producing quality wines to merchants both nationally and overseas. Much of the popularity of HaGafen Cellars wines has to do with the amount of heart and dedication that goes into the craft and the stunning quality of its wines. This is your opportunity to tour and taste it for yourself!

Located in the heart of wine country, The Fairmont Sonoma Mission Inn & Spa is an award-winning hotel with beautifully appointed furnishings and surroundings. Not only is it a AAA Four Star Diamond Hotel 13 years in a row, it also boasts a Michelin Award Winning restaurant, Santé and is home to one of the Top 100 Spa Destinations Worldwide.
