The Four Diamond Tubac Golf Resort and Spa was made famous by Kevin Costner's 1996 movie "Tin Cup," where many of the scenes were filmed. Designed in 1959 by renowned golf course architect Robert 'Red' Lawrence, the original 18-hole course is widely considered to be the 'Jewel of Southern Arizona Golf Courses.'

In the fall of 2006 local golf course architect Ken Kavanaugh added nine new holes woven into the existing eighteen. Dramatically enhancing the course's layout by adding both distance and challenge, these new holes continue to maintain the playability so loved by all who come to stay and play.

The architecture, reminiscent of Spanish Colonial times, graces the resort's 500 acres with easy access to dining, golf, spa amenities, and swimming. It's a timeless and magical experience perfect for the golf and spa enthusiast.
