This vibrant, western-themed Bugs Bunny painting by artist Matthew Laurence Knott reimagines the iconic cartoon character with a bold, contemporary twist.Â

Titled “YEEHAH BUNNY,” the piece blends street art energy with pop surrealism, using vivid spray-painted colors, graffiti tags, and expressive drips to create a dynamic visual punch.

Bugs sports a cowboy hat and patchwork flannel, nodding to Western Americana, while the neon palette and graphic textures inject a rebellious, urban flair.

The playful composition and exaggerated style reflect your signature approach—merging nostalgic characters with a modern attitude and radiant joy.
