

Beautiful Harquahala Mountains 12x16 Framed Metal Print

Starting Bid $85.00

Retail Value $125.00

Donated by Rebecca Wilks

This breathtaking 12X16 metal print radiates vibrant color and depth, capturing every detail with striking beauty. It beautifully showcased in a handcrafted frame by the photographer's husband, adding a personal and heartfelt touch to this unique piece. A perfect blend of artistry and craftsmanship-ready to become the centerpiece of your home or office.

The Harquahala Mountains are the highest mountain range in southwestern Arizona and are located southwest of the towns of Aguila and Wenden. The name originated from the Yavapai 'Hakhe:la", which means "running water".