Fused Glass Class

#77

Private Fused Glass Class for four with

Artist Michelle Young

Michelle has been a fused glass artist for the past 15 years. Michelle's fused glass artwork includes a variety of gallery art pieces and commissioned projects for her client's homes, churches and businesses. She creates both functionally useful pieces such as bowls, vases, plates and trays, as well as decorative artwork for display. Her favorite part of fusing is teaching others the process and beauty of glass art.

The class lasts between 2-3 hours, and you will create your own piece of work under the direction of Michelle. The cost includes individual instruction, materials for a maximum 10" piece, and kiln firing. This is a creative, fun class where you can follow your imagination!
