Palmento Costanzo 2018- Vino Etna Doc Bianco. Moffett

Tasting Note: Medium straw yellow with a fragrant bouquet rich of citrus fruit and mineral notes, with hints of Mediterranean herbs. It is vibrant, fresh, and sapid on the palate. Alc: 12%

Icardi Surisjvan 2018 - Langhe Nebbiolo

Our Score: 92

In the Langhe area of Piemonte (which includes the municipalities of Barolo and Barbaresco), the Nebbiolo grape can really give its best. This wine, dedicated by the winemaker to “the smile of his son Ivan”, is an excellent value for the quality. At the nose, an immediate explosion of roses and red fruit (strawberry and raspberry jam), followed by blood, bay leaves, orange zest and white pepper. In the mouth, it is warm and persistent with elegant tannins.

Grape: Nebbiolo

Pairing: Nebbiolo is great with braised and stewed beef, but I also like it with a pork shank or any roasted meat. Great also with a piece of aged cheese at the end of the dinner.

Appellation: Langhe DOC, Italy
