"The Endless Summer" is an iconic American surf documentary filmed in 1963 and first released in auditoriums in 1964. The Monster Wave Company has made the iconic movie poster into a 500 piece jigsaw puzzle with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the DPFF. This 15"x20" puzzle includes a full size image of the puzzle inside the box. The pieces are enclosed in a drawstring bag in an effort to eliminate the use of plastic in the packaging.

Monster Wave Company was formed by two surfers at San Onofre Surfing Beach. Kurt Snibbe an arQst and Norm Petersen, a reQred business guy kicked around ideas on what to do with Snibbe's art. The idea for a jigsaw puzzle came up and Monster Wave Company was started.
