PETER FORSBERG HAND-SIGNED COLORADO AVALANCHE 8X10 PHOTO FRAMED

Peter Forsberg is a Swedish former professional ice hockey player and former assistant general manager of Modo Hockey. Nicknamed "Peter the Great" and "Foppa", Forsberg was known for his on-ice vision and physical play, and is considered one of the greatest players of all time.^[1] Although his career was shortened by persistent injuries, as of 2021, he stands ninth all-time in career points-per-game^[2] and fifth all-time in career assists-per-game^[3] in the NHL, only behind Wayne Gretzky, Mario Lemieux, Bobby Orr, and Connor McDavid. In 2017 Forsberg was named one of the '100 Greatest NHL Players' in history.^[4]

His 19-year professional career includes 13 years in the National Hockey League (NHL), where he won two Stanley Cups with the Colorado Avalanche, as well as several individual honors including the Hart Memorial Trophy in 2003. As of the end of the 2017-18 season, he is the seventh-highest all-time Swedish point scorer in the NHL regular season.^[5] Before his short-lived comeback season in 2011, Forsberg never had a negative plus-minus rating, giving him an overall career rating of +238.
