Barcelona, Spain:

Barcelona is a prized city with a lot to offer tourists. Visit some of Gaudi's most famous architectural achievements, such as the Sagrada Familia and Park Guell. These two landmarks are some of the most iconic in all of Barcelona and worth visiting. Another must-see in Barcelona is the food market, La Boqueria. This market is one of the largest and most well-known in Europe and is a great place to try some traditional Spanish dishes. Lastly, no trip to Barcelona is complete without a visit to one of its many beaches. La Barceloneta is one of the most popular beaches in Barcelona and is a great place to soak up the sun and enjoy incredible views.

The Residence:

This charming residence features a 4-night stay in a two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment that can comfortably accommodate up to four guests. This is the perfect place to call home base while exploring everything Barcelona offers. In addition to your comfortable accommodations, this package also includes a private market tour and a Paella-making experience. You and your group will be immersed in Barcelona's fascinating culture and food scene with this half-day private market tour led by a personal chef who has experience working in some of the city's top restaurants. You'll visit some of the best markets in Barcelona while learning all about the local fare. This experience will be followed by a hands-on cooking class focused on the mouthwatering national dish, paella.

Of course, you'll get to enjoy your hard work for lunch!
