La Mujer Del Agua - While floating down the colorful Xochimilco canals of Mexico City, a pensive moment is captured.

Stirling - I'm a Los Angeles-based photographer and filmmaker who uses these visual mediums as a way to observe and understand the world. I'm inspired by my most cherished childhood memories of wandering museum exhibits and spending time with the artistic women in my life. From a young age, I've been devoted to an artistic lifestyle. First, appreciating art as a means of escapism, these days I create images that attempt to capture the transient concepts of emotion, place, and time.--Â
