La Dolce Vita in Umbria, Italy for 6

This 3 bedroom/4 bathroom private villa provides the base for an unforgettable 7-night stay for 6 in the Umbrian countryside. Furnished with antiques and surrounded by fields of sunflowers and wheat, the accommodation is traditional and wholly modernized. Straddling the border between Tuscany and Umbria, this area represents the essence of the Italian countryside, with stunning medieval hilltop towns, winding roads lined with cypress trees, picturesque vineyards, and charming stone farmhouses dotting the landscape. With easy access to cities such as Florence, Cortona, and Perugia, this part of Umbria provides the perfect blend of country life and relaxation with exposure to some of Italy's most important cultural destinations.

Blending good food, Italian tradition, and contact with locals, your truffle hunting tour will take you to hunt this famous local product of Umbria. The truffle hunter and his dog will show you how to find truffles walking through the woods and how to cook and enjoy
