"Kansas City is my home. I have lived in KC for over 30 years and in those 30 years I have discovered many deep seated joys, life long passions, inspirational places and genuinely wonderful people. My Kansas City work reflects all of those subjects and more. it's an ever evolving dialog. A never ending love letter to the city I call home. A city in which I continue to find daily inspiration, constant pride and overflowing Community." - John Knell
