

Tuscany Gourmet Adventure For Eight

Starting Bid $7,695.00

Retail Value $17,000.00

2 Available

Donated by Provided by Raise Away

Includes:

- 7-nights
- Accommodates 8 guests
- Daily maid service with mid-week change of linen
- Daily breakfast prepared by a private chef
- One full-day wine tour at 2 wineries near Montepulciano, with visits to their cellars and lunch is included
- Culinary adventure with a private chef showing you how to make homemade pasta and sauces with a three-course dinner included

Tuscany, Italy:

Tuscany is a wealth of historic treasures, considered to be one-of-a-kind worldwide: the region is full of art at every glance and little picturesque villages with a huge cultural heritage and is also extraordinary because of its fascinating landscape, with its bucolic countryside and rolling hills. Last but not least its food rich with authentic flavors and its countryside and rolling hills. Last but not least, its food, rich with authentic flavors and its prized wines, ranked among the best in the world. Put simply, there are really many reasons to visit Tuscany!

The Residence:

Located in Cortona, the villa features a pool with spectacular views of the countryside of Tuscany. Boasting views of Cortona and the Chiana valley, here you are far from the chaos and movement, surrounded by elm trees. The villa features 4 bedrooms and 5 bathrooms, with three different levels of the house. Guests can enjoy the outdoor patio and make fresh homemade pizza in the brick oven.