Over 30 years ago a young man surprised his wife with a pickup truck, as she stood on the stoop with their two small boys. Naturally she asked "What is this honey?" And smiling his signature grin he replied "Our delivery truck for the new mattress store I'm opening." A testament to their love and level of trust she only blinked once in disbelief before committing to this new adventure. Since then, their family business has not only grown but has thrived, and in the Winter of 2022 they celebrate their 35 year anniversary.

Fred Kunke, the founder and owner, has a warm smile and firm handshake for every customer that he encounters. In every interaction it is obvious that Fred has a deep caring for his customers, listening intently and matching their wants to their needs. He has developed his extensive knowledge about not only the products, but the science of sleep in order to best serve and guide his customers to the right mattress and the best night's sleep of their life.
