

Handmade Canarywood Stool

#27

Starting Bid $150.00

Donated by Cindy Roberts

A handcrafted stool made of Brazilian wood is a unique and beautiful piece of furniture that can add a touch of elegance to any room. Brazilian wood is known for its durability, strength, and natural beauty.Â This beautiful 3-legged stool with a seat made from Canarywood from Brazil, and legs made ofÂ pecan from Norht Carolina is hand turned by local artisan on a lathe, signed under the seat.A handcrafted stool is a one-of-a-kind piece of furniture that can be passed down through generations.