

Catching the Moon

Starting Bid $250.00

Donated by Katrina Vasquez

Small - 12 inch butterfly

As an Arizona native, Katrina has drawn much of her inspiration from the captivating desert landscape. From black and white charcoals to digital art, she has worked with a wide variety of media. At the heart of Katrina's life is her role as a wife and mother. Her son, a vibrant source of inspiration and joy, has become the focal point of her latest art projects. Her work, characterized by its playful details and colorful appeal, continues to evolve as she balances her artistic pursuits with the joys of motherhood.