Inspiration was remembering the difficult journey and struggles made by monarchs as they migrate. Both the natural challenges in their journey and the added, much more difficult challenges created by humankind.

"Creating art defines me."Â Kim-Sandy's appreciation for art has led her to push her personal limits trying new ways to express herself.Â "It softens life's troubling times, brings me joy and truly gives me a sense of freedom. My hands and mind design, my torch and kiln have the final say. Most every piece has its own element of surprise. A gift unraveled." Â

Fiber arts led her to stained glass, lampwork, kiln formed glass, clay and metal. Her vision for her artâ€™
