

Light as Music

#46

Starting Bid $300.00

Donated by Lexy - Alexandra Scott

Small - 12 inch butterfly

Inspired by the universal symphony that constantly plays, but only can be heard through the stillness of one's self. A butterfly's dance to this song is a journey of light, color and growth.

Lexy is a sculptor, restorer, and scenographer born and raised in Arizona. She currently creates her work and collaborates with artists from the West Valley to Tucson. Her work is inspired by the playful eye of the Western life and land.
