

Space Flight

#58

Starting Bid $1,000.00

Donated by Manny Burruel

XLarge - 48 inch butterfly

Inspired by the early space exploration on the Apollo missions and the Space Shuttle. "I grew up glued to the television watching us landing on the moon and later the Space Shuttle missions."

Manny Burruel is a printmaker and painter. His subject matter is often autobiographical. He likes to use objects and images that represent his past and may trigger a personal connection for the viewer. Burruel studied art at Glendale Community College. Soon after, he was juried into the MARS (Movimiento Artístico del Río Salado) Art Space and has since shown his work in galleries and museums throughout Arizona. He is currently an affiliated artist with XICO Arte y Cultura and is the Gallery Director at The Olney Gallery at Trinity Cathedral in