Small - 12 inch butterfly

Inspired by the balance between tradition and transformation. The earthy clay tones, vibrant teal, and coral reflect nature's beauty and cultural roots. One side's structured patterns symbolize strength and unity, while the dynamic stripes on the other represent movement and growth. This piece represents the harmony of stability and change, celebrating resilience and grace.

Kara is originally from Michigan and has been a valley resident for over 20 years. She creates artwork that speaks volumes. Using vivid colors, layers, various shapes, and textures, she enjoys exploring the world of abstract and mixed media art. Her work is varied, complex, and evokes emotion.

She was an exchange student through Rotary and admires their support and involvement in the community.
