

Becoming, Gently

#23

Starting Bid $300.00

Donated by Lana Nguyen

Small - 12 inch butterfly This butterfly explores the idea of balance as a living, evolving state. Through mirrored forms, flowing botanical patterns, and a restrained yet vibrant palette, the piece reflects the harmony between logic and intuition, strength and softness. The symmetry suggests mental clarity and inner alignment, while organic details introduce movement, growth, and transformation. Created as a symbol of poised change, the butterfly becomes a reminder that elegance emerges not from perfection, but from equilibrium in motion. Lana is an artist originally from Ukraine who moved to Phoenix in 2018 to pursue her passion for art. Specializing in paper collage and resin techniques, she has a deep love for mixed media, drawing inspiration from the natural world and her