

dup:Heirloom Garden

#39

Starting Bid $300.00

Donated by Hannah Cisneros

Small - 12 inch butterfly

Inspired by the vigorous growth of our garden plants. Despite the intense heat, these ancient beauties survived and are thriving. Winds composed of florals and fruits: hibiscus and pomegranate on one side with amaranth and fig on the other.

Hannah Cisneros is a multimedia artist, educator, parent and lifelong Arizonian. They received their Master of Fine Arts from ASU in 2017. Hannah's subjects span from botanical printmaking to mythological painting and surreal video art. They are currently the Lead Instructor of Painting, Printmaking and Photo department at the Mesa Arts Center.

