

dup:Wings of Hope

#17

Starting Bid $750.00

Donated by Kara Marshall

Medium - 30 inch butterfly

Embodies the spirit of resilience, transformation, and cultural connection. The bold interplay of earthy clay, vibrant teal, deep coral, and crisp white reflects a journey of strength and renewal. The geometric patterns are inspired by tribal artistry, symbolizing unity and tradition, while the flowing lines and intersecting shapes represent growth, movement, and endless possibilities. This piece serves as a reminder that hope, much like a butterfly, carries us forward with grace and purpose.Â

Kara is originally from Michigan and has been a valley resident for over 20 years. She creates artwork that speaks volumes. Using vivid colors, layers, various shapes, andâ€¦