

Illumination

#30

Starting Bid $300.00

Donated by Kara Marshall

Small - 12 inch butterfly Inspired by the radiant colors of butterflies, and the quiet strength behind their beauty. Flowing lines and geometric structures represent the endurance, discipline, and resilience required for transformation while the base of flowers represents the natural forces that support and guide the butterfly along its path. The painted sculpture reflects the balance between fragility and strength, honoring the journey of becoming. Kara is originally from Michigan and has been a valley resident for over 20 years. She creates artwork that speaks volumes. Using vivid colors, layers, various shapes, and textures, she enjoys exploring the world of abstract and mixed media art. Her work is varied, complex, and evokes emotion. She was an exchange student through Rotary andâ€¦