

The Beat of a Butterfly™s Wings

#7

Starting Bid $1,500.00

Donated by Dan Mason

Large - 40 inch butterfly This piece features a series of interlocking rings, each inscribed with the words Hope, Love, Unity, and Respect, radiating outward as they push away the fading words Hate, Anxiety, Anger, and Spite. Painted on a large butterfly sculpture, it symbolizes both the freedom to rise high above negativity and the ripple effect of positive energies ability to move outward. In a time of uncertainty, where many forces seek to disrupt our peace, this piece serves as a visual reminder of the strength found in these simple yet powerful ideals. Dan Mason is a Philadelphia-based artist whose work bridges the worlds of tattooing, graffiti, and contemporary art.
