

The Fly of the Monarch

#56

Starting Bid $250.00

Donated by Rebeca Garsan - student

Small - 12 inch butterfly Butterflies represent transformation through the quiet miracle of metamorphosis. Among them, the monarch embarks on a remarkable life journey, traveling great distances and enduring change along the way. Through this journey, the monarch becomes a symbol of perseverance and resilience, reminding us that transformation is possible and that it is within our power to continue forward, even thru uncertainty. Rebeca has shown a passion for art from a very young age. Over the past five years, she has taken private lessons that have helped nurture her creativity and refine her artistic skills. Through consistent practice and guided instruction, she continues to grow in technique and expression. This is her third year participating in Take Flight, where she is excitedâ€¦