WILLIE MAYS HAND SIGNED AND FRAMED SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS JERSEY

Willie Howard Mays Jr. (born May 6, 1931), nicknamed "the Say Hey Kid" and "Buck", is a former center fielder in Major League Baseball (MLB). Regarded as one of the greatest players ever, Mays ranks second behind only Babe Ruth on most all-time lists, including those of The Sporting News and ESPN.^[8] Mays played in the National League (NL) between 1951 and 1973 for the New York / San Francisco Giants and New York Mets. Mays is the oldest living member of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.
