

"Chickadee" Sculpture by Artist Ken Rowe

#91

Starting Bid $140.00

Retail Value $295.00

1 Available

Donated by Rowe Gallery at Tlaquepaque

For this sculpture, Ken worked with live Gambel's quail models. Ken began a series of quail bronzes that were being inspired, along with a friendship that was growing, with these unlikely creatures. Many books have been written on the life of quails who are more complex in their emotional make-up than one might think.

"Chickadee" is an open edition sculpture from Ken Rowe's Wired series of quail - created as unique, small sculptures for his collectors desiring a smaller masterpiece.