A curated collection of some of the most delicious wines of California. Tour the State's best wine regions, without leaving Westchester. The collection includes:

2012 Tensley Colson Canyon Syrah, from 100-point wine maker Joey Tensley. This Santa Barbara beauty could change your life.

2017 Vermillion. GSM blend from Food & Wine Winemaker of the Year, Helen Keplinger, with grapes sourced from Sonoma County to the Sierra foothills.

2018 Anderson Conn Valley Cabernet Blend. Their wines age beautifully and this Napa

Valley bottle is from the near-perfect 2018 vintage.

2019 Melville Terraces Pinot Noir. Rated 95 point by the Wine Advocate, this Santa Rita

Hills Pinot Noir is among the best made in California.

2019 Gelfand Petite Sirah. A sleeper winemaker from Paso Robles, who makes unique, delicious, crowd- pleasing wines.
