In 1981 the creative journey of Li'l Pap began with three brothers in Southern California. One, having recently completed college in Colorado, joined forces with his siblings, both still pursuing their education. Fueled by the artistic vision of one brother, Li'l Pap was born as a charming character for greeting cards, marking the inception of a small-scale business. As life unfolded, the brothers ventured into their respective fields, leaving Li'l Pap to temporarily fade into the background after captivating many hearts. However, the year 2024 heralds the return of Li'l Pap. Now reborn in the form of a Christian comic book designed for children of all ages â€” a project deeply rooted in heartfelt inspiration. This unique and joy-filled comic book is precisely what everyone needs, offering â€”
