Beautiful framed picture of MLB Hall of Fame Baseball player Roberto Clemente. *** The picture includes his 18 years of statistics while playing for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Tragically, his life was cut short at 38 yrs old when a plane he was on, delivering supplies to earthquake victims in Guatemala, went down in the Atlantic Ocean. *** Mr. Clemente was a Puerto Rican professional baseball right fielder who played 18 seasons in Major League Baseball (MLB) for the Pittsburgh Pirates. After his early death, he was posthumously inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973, becoming both the first Caribbean and the first Latin-American player to be enshrined. *** Because he died at a young age and had such a stellar career, the Hall of Fame changed its rules of eligibility. As an alternative to a player having to be retired for five years before eligibility, a player who has been deceased for at least six months is eligible for entry. *** This is a great item for any Baseball fan!
