This cross was created by Southwestern Artist William Templeton, whose work has centered on the art of the Southwest. Bill's work spans paintings, textiles, sculpture, and art using the materials that are part of life in the Southwest. This cross is called a Saguaro and Sandrose Cross. The sandrose and metal candle holder were cast and created by Bill. He was born in Illinois and grew up in the Chicago area. In school Bill continued working in different media and finally he went on to graduate from The University of Arizona in Tucson. His artwork was available through galleries in various parts of the country. Now that he is an established artist, he is working at becoming independent and wants to stop using the galleries because of their high commissions.
