Signed Lithograph by Marci L Rule (#317 of 750) of the famed 16th hole at Cypress Point, Monterey Peninsula, California.  Includes a certificate of authenticity  Marci Rule grew up in the beautiful countryside of southern Wisconsin. She began her art career drawing and painting at an early age and although she received summer scholarships to area university programs and had encouragement and support from her teachers while in high school, she is primarily self-taught. Marci felt that a career in art was not practical so she studied business at the University of Wisconsin Madison and the University of Minnesota Minneapolis.  She continued to draw and paint for friends and relatives and eventually followed her heart and pursued a career in painting.  In 1987, while living in
