

REDUCED PRICE Lithograph Bowl of Fruit

William Acheff (born 1928) is an American painter. A self-proclaimed "visual artist," he is known for his still life paintings of objects, often in a still life setting. He is a member of the Southern California Art Institute and the Los Angeles Art Club. He has been featured in several art books and exhibitions. His work is characterized by a strong sense of composition and a focus on light and shadow. He is currently residing in Los Angeles, California.

William Acheff (born 1928) is an American painter. A self-proclaimed "visual artist," he is known for his still life paintings of objects, often in a still life setting. He is a member of the Southern California Art Institute and the Los Angeles Art Club. He has been featured in several art books and exhibitions. His work is characterized by a strong sense of composition and a focus on light and shadow. He is currently residing in Los Angeles, California.

William Acheff (born 1928) is an American painter. A self-proclaimed "visual artist," he is known for his still life paintings of objects, often in a still life setting. He is a member of the Southern California Art Institute and the Los Angeles Art Club. He has been featured in several art books and exhibitions. His work is characterized by a strong sense of composition and a focus on light and shadow. He is currently residing in Los Angeles, California.

Starting Bid $50.00